

This is an unbelievable front to democracy.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This is obviously a smear campaign being wielded by corporate America. It should not be allowed to happen, period.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. We need to let small and local broadcasting groups have a fighting chance. Thank you.
